

Sally A. Monzyk

CEO, Monzyk Innovations LLC

Samonzyk.innovate@gmail.com

256-760-3112 614-806-0765

Personal Abilities

Strong presentation and communication skills. Ability to creatively engage, organize and motivate people in a positive and constructive manner. Management with proven success in a variety of roles within a business structure. Proven successful negotiator.

Education

Master of Arts Health Education, The Ohio State University

Bachelor of Science in Nursing, The Ohio State University

Associate Degree in Nursing, Mohawk Valley Community College

Business Capabilities and Accomplishments

CEO Monzyk Innovations. Co-founder of new company. Researched and completed legal documents for business start-up and operations. Hired and managed staff including training and payroll. Participated in design and set up of R&D facility. Trained and mentored Chemical Engineering students employed at Monzyk Innovations laboratory. Managed company budgets, proposals, contracts, and accounting requirements. Participates in new product demonstrations and development.

Extensive experience with cultures from all over the world in role as clinical intake specialist with the English as a Second Language program in a large metropolitan school system.

Writer/Producer with a wide spectrum of educational and marketing videos and educational materials.

Trainer/educator for a variety of educational initiatives.

Strong interest in environmental issues and highly motivated to address those issues impacting our world and the wildlife with which we share the planet in an economic way.